Form 990 p 1: Pt I, Ln 1, Mission

The Kyiv School of Economics (also see www.kse.org.ua - KSE is the brand name for EERC) implements one and two-year English-language masters program in economics - These programs train students in modern market economics, preparing graduates both for successful careers in Ukrainian business and policy, and for further studies at the PHD level. The School also has created a lively research environment with faculty members who publish in leading international academic journals and an active policy outreach program with faculty regularly writing for popular press and consulting for national and international organizations.

The Economics network program (also see www.eerc.ru) was initially established in Moscow to encourage the application of modern economics to policy analysis and to facilitate the creation of a vibrant economic policy community in the CIS. Now it implements this goal from Kyiv, providing individual economists in the region with research funding, advanced training, and professional networking opportunities at home and abroad.
