Descriptions of Program Service Accomplishments

Water Programs. During FY12, Water.org funded clean water and sanitation programs in Bangladesh, Ethiopia, Haiti, India, Kenya and Uganda. Through water, sanitation and hygiene programs, Water.org reached more than 220,000 individuals with access to clean drinking water and/or improved sanitation. This intervention provides an immediate and sustainable improvement in the quality of life for people in developing countries.

Water.org renewed activities in partnership with PepsiCo Foundation. In a three year period, Water.org reached more than 250,000 people in urban and rural areas with safe water and/or sanitation services in five states in India. In addition, Water.org continued a program with the MasterCard Foundation that will serve 180,000 beneficiaries in Kenya over four years.

In FY12, Water.org facilitated the disbursement of more than $6.2 million in microcredit loans for water and sanitation, reaching more than 165,000 people. The cumulative global WaterCredit repayment rate is nearly 98 percent.

Water.org is one of the first organizations in the world to use microcredit to help people in developing countries finance their own water systems. WaterCredit puts microfinance tools to use in the water and sanitation sector. By making small loans to communities and individuals who do not have access to traditional credit markets, WaterCredit helps finance the upfront cost of water and sanitation systems. By mobilizing external loan capital or when loans are repaid into a revolving fund, the multiplier effect means that many more people can be helped for the same philanthropic investment. And since users with a financial stake in their water supply projects have a greater incentive to ensure proper operations and maintenance, WaterCredit projects have built-in advantages for long-term sustainability.

In FY12, Water.org's partner organizations were able to obtain more than $6.3 million in funding for the loans directly from commercial banks, social investors, and revolving loan funds, instead of through grants from Water.org. For donors, this translates into greater leverage for each dollar donated. By stimulating external capital (i.e. loans from commercial banks), less Water.org funding is needed for the program and more grant money can go to where it's needed most – to the poorest of the poor.

Water.org selects partner organizations in developing countries with a strong success record of implementing safe water and sanitation projects. As part of its capacity-building efforts, Water.org certified new partner organizations in FY12. Water.org maintains liaison offices in both India and Kenya.

Advocacy/Outreach. Water.org raises awareness of the global water crisis and its efforts to address it through a variety of mediums, including but not limited to:

- water.org, watercredit.org, and my.Water.org websites;

- social media outreach on Facebook and Twitter;
- celebrity engagement;
- strategic partnerships;
- traditional media relations;
- distribution of its electronic newsletter and annual report;
- cause marketing efforts;
- quarterly conference calls;
- free eCard promotions;
- weekly podcast with a Water.org staff member;
- sharing stories, photos and videos captured in the field through our websites; and
- presentations at top conferences around the world.

Water.org holds Charity Navigator's four-star rating and the Independent Charities of America's "Best in America" seal of excellence, and meets the Council of Better Business Bureaus' Standards for Charitable Solicitations.

New Ventures. Water.org launched this initiative in 2011 to accelerate the pace in the search for and launch of the next round of big ideas that will change the face of the water crisis. This initiative catalyzes the "Idea Lab" to support Water.org teams and partners to generate new ideas, develop hypotheses, and to pilot, monitor and take solutions to scale. In addition, it will support a portfolio of innovations experimental in nature, creating things like mobile apps, financing mechanisms and citizen engagement tools.
