Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
FIN 48 DISCLOSURE	SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2	A S P E N and the Foundation have received letters from the Internal Revenue Service dated January 1985 and September 2007, respectively, indicating that they are tax-exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. They are entitled to rely on these determinations as long as there are no substantial changes in its character, purposes, or methods of operation. Management has concluded that there have been no such changes, and therefore A S P E N 's and the Foundation's status as public charities exempt from federal income taxation remain in effect. They are subject to income tax liability on unrelated business income only. A S P E N and the Foundation filed Forms 990, 990-T, and the related state returns and did not report any material income tax on unrelated business taxable income for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2011. Management believes there to be no material income tax on unrelated business taxable income for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2012. Sustain is a Maryland limited liability company that has not elected to be taxed as a corporation under current Treasury regulations. Under the Internal Revenue Code, Sustain is not subject to federal or state income tax, but must file an annual information return indicating gross and taxable income to determine the tax results to the member. Current accounting standards provide guidance on accounting for uncertainty of income tax positions. These standards define the threshold for recognizing tax return positions in the financial statements as "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable, based on its technical merits. These standards also provide guidance on the measurement, classification and disclosure of tax return positions in the financial statements. Management believes there is no material effect on its consolidated financial statements related to uncertain income tax positions.
