require the Organizations to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organizations and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Organizations have taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Organization has analyzed the tax positions taken, and has concluded that as of September 30, 2012, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements.

The Organization's tax returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities. In the event of an examination of such tax returns, the liability of the Organizations could be changed if adjustments to the tax returns were ultimately sustained by the taxing authorities.

The Organizations will recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense if incurred. The Organizations are no longer subject to federal and state tax examinations by tax authorities for income tax returns relating to years prior to September 30, 2009.
