Part VI, Governance, Management, and Disclosure:

6. The organization has members that (a) elect the members of the governing body, which includes the officers and the board of directors; and (b) the members approve significant decisions of the governing body. The members are all volunteers. No one receives any compensation.

7a. The members elect all the members of the governing body.

7b. Members approve by voting on decisions made by the governing body.

8b. There were no committees authorized to act on behalf of the governing body.

11a. The organization's completed Form 990 is not reviewed by all members of the governing body before it is filed, but the financial statements prepared by the Treasurer are continuous updated and reviewed by the governing body at meetings throughout the year.

At the end of a FY those statements and supporting schedules are provided to the former Treasurer, who completes the tax return based on that information. The completed return is given to an officer to review, sign, and mail. A copy of the signed return is posted to the organization's website for the governing body and members to review, and for public inspection.

19. The organization's governing documents are posted on the organization's website.
