Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The Oregon Social Learning Center is a collaborative, multidisciplinary center dedicated to increasing the scientific understanding of social and psychological processes related to healthy development and family functioning. OSLC applies that understanding to the design and evaluation of interventions that strengthen children, adolescents, families and communities.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 5,773,924 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 8,393,617)

Work supported by US Department of Health and Human Services and US Department of Education. OSLC conducts scientific research to understand family, peer, school, community and individual processes that influence the long term behavioral and psychological outcomes for children, adolescents and adults. The organization has an international reputation for theory and the design, implementation and evaluation of interventions that improve the well being of individuals and families. The translation of theory to evidence-based practices include innovative methods, longitudinal studies of the general population and at-risk children and families, and rigorous evaluation of our programs. Examples of some of our evidence-based programs include those with children in high-risk schools, children in foster care and the juvenile justice system, divorced families, and incarcerated parents. Research findings are published and disseminated to benefit professionals in psychology, social work and education.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 746,606 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 1,104,244)

Work supported by subcontracts. An important aspect of research is collaboration with others in the field of child development, prevention research and the application of research to practice. The Oregon Social Learning Center receives subcontracts from universities and research institutions to carry out specific objectives of mutual benefit to the respective research programs. Such collaborations also promote publications and presentations of research findings.

Part VI. 7a. Does the organization have members or other persons who may elect one or more members of the governing body?

Yes. The bylaws state that persons employed by the organization for at least 20 hours per week are eligible to become members

Eligible persons must give their consent to membership. Members have the right to vote on certain matters of importance to the Organization.

Part VI. 7b. Are any decisions of the governing body subject to approval by members or other persons?

The bylaws give members of the organization the right to approve revisions or amendments to the bylaws. Such changes are referred from the governing body.

Part VI. 11b. Describe the process the organization uses to review the Form 990.

After management review, the organizations Audit committee review a final draft of Form 990. The review is in conjunction with, or subsequent to, their review of the fiscal year end audit report. The committee members provide feedback and request any appropriate corrections. Upon completion, the Audit Committee approves filing the Form 990 and report such action to the Board. Draft copies of Form 990 are provided to board members prior to filing.

Part VI. 12c. Describe how the organization regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with the written conflict of interest policy.

In addition to declaring a conflict on matters before the Board, the Directors file a written disclosure annually. Scientists report significant financial conflict of interest annually. These reports are reviewed by administration and a Board subcommittee. Where conflicts are identified, written management plans are signed by administration and the Scientist.

Part VI. 15a. Describe the process for determining compensation of the organizations top management officials.

The top management officials position is included in a market-based job grading system in which ranges of pay are associated with levels of job responsibilities, required education and job knowledge of the employee. Compensation for the top management official is set by the Board of Directors within this framework at the time of hire and during each annual performance review.

All changes in pay are determined by the Board of Directors.

For Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see the Instructions for Form 990 or 990-EZ.
