Expenses
(Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
The primary exempt purpose of the Maine Conservation Alliance is to protect and conserve Maine's air, land, water and wildlife by building and improving the capacity, collaboration, and strategic sophistication of Maine's environmental community, engaging Maine people in the policymaking process, and educating citizens, and elected officials on policy solutions to meet Maine's environmental challenges

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 Maines Environmental Priorities Coalition No one person or group can solve our environmental challenges alone. MCA builds partnerships to increase power and combine resources to create lasting environmental change in Maine. MCA organizes Maines environmental community to speak with one united voice. We serve as the backbone organization of an active coalition of 28 environmental and public health organizations representing more than 100,000 people. Known as the Environmental Priorities Coalition (EPC), we work collectively to advance fair and forward-thinking policies that improve our shared environment. In 2012, MCA continued to serve as the environmental community's hub for shared strategy, communications, education, and organizing. We worked with our EPC partners to develop the annual common environmental agenda and effectively thwarted proposals that would allow large-scale open pit copper mining, weaken energy efficiency standards, and dismantle the Land Use Regulation Commission that protects our North Woods Clean Environment, Healthy Economy Project. MCA launched a new initiative in 2012 to expand and deepen outreach to our allies in the business community and the natural resources sector, including farmers, loggers, fishermen, innkeepers and registered Maine guides. Increasing dialogue and strengthening relationships with Maine people whose livelihoods depend on a clean and healthy environment reinforces the essential message that we do not have to choose between a strong economy and a healthy environment—they go hand in hand. By helping to elevate these new voices with the press, policymakers and the general public, MCA is strengthening Maines environmental community for the future.
