Part III - Primary Exempt Purpose:

The purpose of The Philippian Fellowship shall be to solicit and provide various means of support and encouragement to Evangelical Pastors and churches who are currently ministering in various countries, and who meet the criteria for sponsorship as established by The Philippian Fellowship. This will be accomplished by fostering a sister-church relationship between the sponsoring church and the congregation being sponsored. This support shall include, but not be limited to: the financial support, prayer support, technical assistance, counseling, training, and encouragement, as required to allow a pastor to either initially pursue or enhance his ability to effectively minister to a local congregation within the developing nation.

Part III - Program Accomplishments:

Fostered church and individual relationships between US and 12 Eastern European churches and multiple Christian workers (orphanage, seminary, youth work, crisis pregnancy intervention), focused on financial giving, prayer, counsel, instruction, work teams, pastoral support and church planting. Effected hundreds if not thousands of children (including orphans), teenagers, and adults (single moms/dads as well as married couples, church workers and pastors.)
