Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Sch J, Part III, Additional Information	Part III, Additional Information	In reference to Form 990, Part VII and Schedule J Part II, no compensation is paid by the filing entity to any director (trustee) for his or her role as director (trustee). The officers of the filing entity are all compensated by BHS Management Services, Inc., ("BHSMS") a supporting organization of the filing entity. A portion of the compensation amount paid to officers of the filing entity is allocated internally among the filing entity and its 26 associated non-profit, tax-exempt entities in order to reflect the division of the officers' time and effort among those various entities and each entity's relative contribution to the officers' total compensation. (See Below) Compensation of the chief executive officer of the filing entity is reviewed and established at least biannually by the independent volunteer governing body of the Berkshire Health Systems, Inc., (the parent company of BHSMS) based on performance reviews and comparison to independently established, regionally appropriate benchmarks for similar positions in similarly sized healthcare organizations, as verified by independent, nationally recognized compensation consultants. Compensation of the president of the filing entity is reviewed and established at least biannually by the independent volunteer governing body of Berkshire Healthcare Systems, Inc., (the filing entity or parent company of the filing entity) based on performance reviews and comparison to independently established, regionally appropriate benchmarks for similar positions in similarly sized healthcare organizations, as verified by independent, nationally recognized compensation consultants. Compensation of any other officers and key employees is set in accordance with governing-body established principles based on comparable benchmarks identified by such independent consultants. The governing bodies currently target total compensation for management employees at the 60th percentile of appropriate benchmarks. For most of Mr. Phelps' 20-year tenure as chief executive officer, a written agreement between Berkshire Health Systems and Mr. Phelps has called for Berkshire Health Systems (and its affiliates) to fund a retirement program that, when added to his base compensation and other routine benefits, was intended to bring Mr. Phelps' total compensation close to the 50th percentile range of total compensation for comparable executives in comparable healthcare organizations, as determined by independent, nationally recognized compensation reviewers. For a variety of reasons, the agreed-upon retirement obligation was not fully funded over the twenty years of Mr. Phelps' service and, in 2010, the governing body of Berkshire Health Systems and Mr. Phelps agreed to remedy that shortfall by (a) significantly reducing the retirement benefit, (b) fully catching up the funding of the reduced program over a two-year period and (c) discontinuing any further supplemental retirement program for Mr. Phelps during any remaining period of his employment at Berkshire Health Systems and its affiliates. The catch-up funding of the retirement program was paid over to Mr. Phelps during the reporting year from a Rabbi Trust because, by agreement it became fully vested and, therefore, fully taxable in the reporting year. The catch-up funding amounts for the reduced retirement program are reflected on Form 990 Part VII Item 1 (a) line 2 columns E and F and Schedule J part II line 2(ii), column b through E below. Although the retirement program funding is allocated among Berkshire Health Systems and its direct affiliates, no part of the retirement program funding is allocated among the filing entity or its direct affiliates. David E.
