Part VI, line 11

Form 990, including the attachments, is prepared by an outside paid preparer. It is then presented to the Commander and the members of the governing body. It is reviewed and signed off by the chairperson of the Audit Committee. At the next scheduled monthly member meeting, an announcement is made and written into the Minutes that Form 990 has been filed and is available in the club's office, upon request, for a review and viewing by a club's member in good standing.

Part VI, line 19

All governing documents, policies and financial statements are available during the business hours for review by members. All records are kept in the club's office and, upon the freedom of information request, are available for public viewing. Copy of completed Form 990 is forwarded to the parent organization, PAVA in New York city. The public viewing announcement is on the parent's web site.

Part XII, line 2(c)

The Constitution and the By-laws mandate annual election of a three member Audit Committee. The committee oversees the management of the club. The committee members meet quarterly to examine the financial records and the operations of the club, and subsequently present a report at the monthly meeting. They are present at the meetings of the Executive Board and partake in the discussions of the financial and economic matters of the club. They schedule meetings between themselves or with the club officers to examine and evaluate the financial data and material matters of the club. The chairperson has the right to demand information on any matter from the officers. They also have the authority, if deemed necessary, to present to the membership assembly a petition for an independent audit.
