Certain activities of Meadows are subject to unrelated business income taxes. However, Meadows had no significant taxable income in 2012 and 2011. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying combined financial statements. Corporate income taxes are provided for ComSouth and Retreat using the liability method. The activities of Sea Park subject CRT to unrelated business income taxes but because the LLC had no significant taxable income, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying combined financial statements. Further, there were no significant differences in the reporting of revenues and expenses for financial statement or income tax reporting purposes. CRT has implemented the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using certain provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using this guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the combined financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not that the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. As of December 31, 2012, CRT has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the combined financial statements and believes that it has appropriate support for income tax positions taken in its tax returns. As of December 31, 2012, CRT's federal informational returns generally remain open for the last three years.

Process for Determining Compensation	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15	CRT has an employment contract with its President and Chief Executive Officer, which provides for compensation and fringe benefits. The Board of Trustees reviews the President's performance on an annual basis. Board of Trustee members complete and submit a questionnaire on the President's performance to the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees. The Chairperson calls a meeting of the Board of Trustees Executive Committee to review and discuss the results. The Executive Committee authorizes the Chairperson to meet with the President to discuss the findings and comments regarding the President's performance and to discuss compensation. Prior to the execution of an employment contract, the Board of Trustees, acting through its Compensation Committee, retains an independent compensation consulting firm that performs a compensation study which considered the intermediate sanctions provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 4958 (IRC 4958). Based on the independent compensation consulting firm's work, a certification is issued to CRT's Board of Trustees indicating that the compensation provided under the employment contract is considered reasonable under IRC 4958. Upon completion of the compensation analysis, a recommendation is then presented to the Board of Trustees for a final action by voting to approve the recommendation.
