Part IV – Supplemental Information

Grantees are required to submit a formal "Grant Report" within one year of receiving grant funds detailing their goals, objectives and specific activities identified in the original proposal and to what extent the goals, objectives and activities were complete. Grantees are also required to attach a budget for the grant period which compares the actual revenue and expenses with what was originally proposed. If a grant report is not received within the specified timeframe, the organization is deemed ineligible for future grants from the NHEC Foundation until such time that the Grant Report is on file.
