Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Association may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on technical merits of the position. An example of a tax position includes the tax-exempt status of the Association. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. As of December 31, 2012, the Association does not believe its financial statements include (or reflect) any uncertain tax positions. There are no penalties and interest reflected in the financial statements. At December 31, 2012, the Association's tax returns for the years 2012, 2011, 2010 and 2009 are within the statute of limitations for IRS audit.
