and Tova Jaffe are each officers and directors of the organization. Eliezer D. Jaffe is an uncle of Tova Jaffe.

2. Re: Part VI, Line 11b - The Form 990 was prepared by Martin Balsam, an officer and director of the organization, after consultation to the extend he deemed necessary or appropriate with the other Board members. A copy of the Form 990, including Schedules, was provided to Board members before filing. The Board deems this process sufficient in light of the limited nature of the organization's assets and operations as reflected in Part VIII through X of the Form 990.

3. Re: Part VI, Line 12a through 15 - In light of the limited nature of the organization's assets and operations, the Board does not believe it is necessary to have a written conflict of interest policy (because there can be no conflicts of interest), a written whistleblower policy (because there are no paid employees) or written documentation and destruction policies. There is no process for determining compensation because no compensation is paid.

4. Re: Part VI, Line 19 - There is no written conflict of interest policy. The organization makes its governing documents and financial statements available to the public upon request.

5. Re: Part X, Line 9 - For the year 2012, the organization has changed the accounting method for the Form 990 from the cash to the AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE ISRAEL FREE LOAN ASSOCIATION, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2011

Note 1 - Organization

American Friends of The Israel Free Loan Association, Inc. (Association), formed in 1992, operates as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of New York and is exempt from Federal income taxes pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Association may engage in all forms of charitable activity within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is primarily engaged in providing interest-free loans to needy persons in Israel through grants to The Israel Free Loan Association.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Financial Statement Presentation

Resources are classified for accounting and reporting purposes according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted.

Unrestricted net assets do not have donor-imposed stipulations and are available for use at the discretion of the Board.

Temporarily restricted net assets may be utilized only in accordance with the purpose or time restrictions of the donor. Donor-imposed restrictions may be fulfilled either by Board action or passage of time. There were no temporarily restricted net assets as of December 31, 2011 and 2010.

Permanently restricted net assets are subject to donor restriction and ordinarily do not permit invasion of original principal. There were no permanently restricted net assets as of December 31, 2011 and 2010.

b) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is derived from contributions received from donors.

c) Funds Receivable

Funds receivable relate primarily to contributions made through an external payment network. Management's evaluation of probable losses from such receivable balance is remote.

d) Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Association.

d) Donated Services (Continued)

The members of the Board of Directors volunteer their time and incur expenses servicing the Association; no provision is made in the financial statements for either the services or the expenses.

e) Grants

Grants are charged to expense on approval of the grant commitment by the Board of Directors and subject to the availability of funds.

f) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

g) Income Taxes

The Association is exempt from Federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and is a public charity, which allows donors the maximum charitable deduction.

The Association has analyzed its tax filing positions and concluded it has no uncertain tax position. Accordingly, an accrual of liability related to uncertain tax position is deemed not necessary.

The Association is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. Tax years prior to 2008 are closed.

h) Events Occurring After Reporting Date

Management has evaluated subsequent events between January 1, 2012 and March 16, 2012, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there are no subsequent events that require adjustment to or disclosure in the financial statements.
