Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
comparative information	Form 990, part I, Line 13 & 15	The discrepancy in form 990, Part I, lines 13 and 15 comparative information for prior year vs current year relates to payroll expenses of 14,077,000 that were inadvertently misclassified as grants and similar amounts paid on the prior year return. Other program services Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Immigrants comprise 20% of Israel's total population and while the nation has, for the most part, achieved remarkable success in absorbing this large influx of new citizens, some of the immigrants face long-term challenges that undermine their full integration into Israeli society. JDC's immigrant integration division works to empower vulnerable immigrant groups through the development of services that focus on community building, strengthening the family unit, language education, and focused initiatives for immigrant youth and young adults. The division focuses on vulnerable immigrant groups, particularly Ethiopian-, Bukharan-, and Kavkaz-Israelis and students from minority sectors, such as Druze. For example, 20 centers for young adults serve approximately 30,000 immigrants and veteran Israeli young adults annually providing services related to education, employment, social responsibility, housing and assistance in other areas. Joint Israel, with funding from the Israel emergency campaign (IEC), leveraged its existing partnerships and programs to ensure that urgent and immediate assistance reached the citizens of northern Israel as well as those in the Gaza border region who were subjected to rocket attacks. JDC's IEC-funded new Galilee initiatives are implementing long-term strategies to strengthen the social resilience of communities in the north, as well as in the Gaza border region. Using the tested and proven strategies it employs in its regular programs, these initiatives will boost the ability of Israeli agencies to respond to the social challenges facing these regions in peacetime and prepare them to respond more effectively in the event of a future crisis. Implementation of emergency programs that are aligned with Joint Israel's overriding strategy ensure the advancement of the wider program goals, even while addressing the challenges that were highlighted by the second Lebanon War. The advancement of the wider program goals, even while addressing the challenges that were highlighted by the second Lebanon War.
Process used to review form 990	Part VI, Section B, line 11B	Joint Israel hires an independent accounting firm to prepare and review the organization's form 990 based on information provided by Joint Israel's accounting staff. A copy of the form 990 is distributed to the organization's board members and management for review prior to filing with the IRS.
Conflict of interest policy monitoring & enforcement	Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Each board member must sign a conflict of interest policy which is mailed to them at the beginning of the year. Disclosures are reviewed with outside legal counsel. Refusal to submit the conflict of interest policy can result in a recommendation to be removed from the board. Any person with a conflict does not participate in the decision-making process.
Process for determining compensation	Part VI, Section B, Line 15A & 15B	The personnel and management committee of The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee meets annually to determine compensation of officers and key employees.
Availability of documents to the public	Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The organization makes its form 990 available to the public by retaining a copy at its place of business. The form 990 is likewise published on the internet at www.guidestar.org. The organization's financial statement, governing documents and conflict of interest policy are not ordinarily made available to the public, but, if requested, will be provided at management's discretion.
officers, employees and highest compensated employees	Form 990, part VII	Activity of Joint Israel reflected in this Form 990 takes place exclusively in Israel, there is no activity taking place in the US. All compensation reported in schedule J of this filing was paid exclusively in Israel, no compensation has been paid to any Joint Israel employee in the US or any other locale outside of Israel.
