exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the code and is not a private foundation

A recently issued accounting standard requires entities to disclose in their financial statements the nature of any uncertainty in their tax position. For tax-exempt entities, their tax-exempt status itself is deemed to be an uncertainty, since events could potentially occur to jeopardize their tax-exempt status. The Foundation has implemented this standard and its current accounting policy for evaluating uncertain tax positions is in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals. The Foundation has not recognized any benefits from uncertain tax positions in 2012 and 2011 and believes it has no uncertain tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase or decrease within 12 months of the balance sheet date. The Foundation recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in miscellaneous expense. No interest or penalties were recognized in 2012 and 2011. The Foundation files informational returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and New York State. The Foundation's State informational returns for years prior to 2009 are no longer subject to examination by the respective taxing authorities
