	Community SupportThe Foundation provides grants to support community events, statewide nonprofit organizations and other societal improvement initiatives Grants were provided for these purposes from established named funds and from other grants and donor contributions received by the Foundations Impact provided support to the local area Fill-the-Dome program to restock local food shelters The Foundation has established a Clubs Fore Kids Initiative to promote community youth golf programs by providing clubs, practice and play opportunities to those unable to afford the cost of participation The Foundations have given back to North Dakota communities impacted by natural disasters During 2009 and 2010, the Foundations worked closely with Red River Valley community leaders to create charitable funds at Impact to receive grants and donor contributions to provide financial support for communities affected by the 2009 and 2010 flooding of the Red River Impact coordinated with community committees to distribute funds to nonprofit organizations that benefited flood victims The funds remain in place to collect contributions and to distribute funds for future flooding events The Foundation stands ready to provide financial support in the event of future natural disasters by helping to coordinate fundraising efforts in North Dakota Fiscal Sponsorships The Impact Foundation provides fiscal sponsorship arrangements to community organizations desiring to obtain financial or other support for their charitable projects through grants, or to receive tax-deductible donations from individuals and other donors through the Foundation Sponsorship arrangements may range from a project or organization being included completely under Impact's 501(c)(3) umbrella to assistance to an organization establishing their own separate 501(c)(3) organization Impact offers "back office" services to other charitable organizations Venture Youth Alliance (VYA) The Foundation, in partnership with Dakota Medical Foundation, initiated this program to unite community funding organizations and private donors to research and discuss various societal problems and issues in the region with the goal of a common focus and more coordinated, effective strategies to achieve a greater impact in the community Impact Foundation serves as the fiscal host for the VYA initiative, previously known as the High Impact Philanthropy Initiative The initiative was launched in the spring of 2009 with support from the Otto Bremer, Bush Foundation, Dakota Medical Foundation and other contributions The initial goal of VYA was to inspire funders to adopt a new approach to more strategically and collaboratively solve societal issues in the region The steering committee's initial focus was to build the assets of youth living in Cass and Clay counties The goals of the VYA Initiative are 1) Engaging youth, youth development organizations and others to carry out the YouThrive strategic plan to make the FM area a place where over 46,000 young people can maximize their potential, 2) hold an annual State of the Youth Conference, 3) monitor and maintain FM Youth Compass (youth programs/services mapping system), 4) management of VYA through the 9 member Community Board, 16 member Funder Advisory Board and VYA Director In 2011 and 2012, continuing financial support was provided by the Otto Bremer Foundation, Bush Foundation, Youthprise Foundation, Dakota Medical Foundation and other corporate and individual contributors Red River Children's Advocacy Center (RRCAC), an unrelated public charity During 2012, the Foundation provided "back office" support to the RRCAC through processing their weekly accounts payables, biweekly payroll management, general ledger and periodic financial statements, and coordinating the preparation of their annual Form 990

	(Code) (Expenses $ 184,788 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 66,630)
	Giveback Initiative With grants from Dakota Medical Foundation, Alex Stern Family Foundation and various individual and corporate contributions, Impact launched the GiveBack Initiative in 2006 to inspire donors to substantially increase and improve the impact of their giving of time, talent, and treasure in North Dakota and western Minnesota communities Initiative strategies have focused on education and training for nonprofit organizations to become highly proficient fundraisers and to be more operationally efficient and effective Another key focus is providing education and training for donors and volunteers in the area through marketing, education and training of businesses and nonprofit organizations The initiative has created new ways of thinking and new approaches to maximize opportunities presented with our region's significant wealth transfer and substantial existing and potential volunteer workforce North Dakota Wealth Transfer The Foundations commissioned and funded a North Dakota wealth transfer study in 2005 conducted by the Center on Wealth and Philanthropy at Boston College in Boston, Massachusetts (Center) Impact has distributed the North Dakota Wealth Transfer Study to donors, community leaders, nonprofit organizations, attorneys, accountants, financial advisors, bank, and trust personnel in several North Dakota communities A new North Dakota Wealth Transfer Report entitled, "Endless Possibilities on the Prairie Unleashing North Dakota's Great Potential" 2007-2061, and associated data entitled "Communities with Possibilities" were released in 2011 The new study concluded that through 2061 North Dakota households will give over $95 billion to charity and pay an estimated $39 billion in estate taxes The supplement to Endless Possibilities is the first ever county level analysis of North Dakota wealth transfer In 2012, Impact produced two educational videos about the North Dakota Wealth Transfer and the U S Wealth Transfer Both videos are available for viewing on impactgiveback org GiveBack Website The website (www impactgiveback org) is designed to provide a one-stop information resource for donors to conveniently locate, review, volunteer and make contributions to over 400 nonprofit organizations in the region Nonprofit organizations in North Dakota and northwestern Minnesota are encouraged to place their organizational information on the website to easily connect with donors of time, talent and treasure Donors are able to research and identify their favorite nonprofit organizations and to make contributions directly online using their credit card or to purchase gift cards that are redeemed as contributions to listed organizations Nonprofit organizations are able to utilize the website to receive contributions, process event registrations, and conduct fundraising auctions As of December 2012, www impactgiveback org website has processed over 43,400 contributions totaling over $5 6 million since its 2007 implementation On average, the volunteer page on the website consistently displays about 200 volunteer opportunities a day in the region Giving Hearts Day Initiative In 2008, the Foundation partnered with Dakota Medical Foundation to promote charitable giving in the region The online giving environment expands the capacity of area nonprofit organizations to efficiently raise funds for their programs The online giving website at www impactgiveback org is used to promote the annual Giving Hearts Day each February and provides donors with an easy-to-use venue to make online contributions to their favorite charitable organizations The first Giving Hearts Day in February 2009 generated over $325,000 in 24-hours with over 2,800 transactions The February 2012 Giving Hearts Day had 140 nonprofit organizations participating and generated over $1 6 million in 24-hours with approximately 10,850 transactions Since inception in 2008, the Giving Hearts Day Initiative has generated over 28,000 donor contributions totaling over $4 7 million The Giving Hearts Day events have generated over $6 3 million in contributions to community nonprofit organizations Veteran Emergency Charitable Fund The Veterans Fund was established at Impact Foundation to receive charitable contributions from donors to support the emergency needs of North Dakota veterans and their eligible dependents not covered under current federal or state programs Impact has partnered with the North Dakota Veteran's Affairs office to determine eligible veterans and their funding needs Impact has defined a charitable class of North Dakota veterans to meet the requirements for distributions from the Impact charitable fund as determined and approved by the fund advisors each November The Foundation supports a Veteran's Giving effort to raise charitable contributions for the Fund utilizing the GiveBack online giving website and other means Since inception the fund has generated over $40,100 in contributions and provided assistance to 10 qualified veteran families

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X, Line 2	Impact Foundation has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Impact Foundation undergoes an annual analysis of their various tax positions, assessing the likelihood of these positions being upheld upon examination with relevant tax authorities, as defined by the generally accepted accounting principles. Impact Foundation believes that they are compliant with all IRS tax regulations and as of December 31, 2012 and 2011 has not recorded liabilities for income taxes. The Foundation will recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax liabilities in income tax expense if incurred. Impact Foundation is no longer subject to federal and state tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009.
