Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 5	In April 2012 the organization became aware of a significant diversion of assets through misappropriation of funds by a former officer of the corporation. The organization initially reported this diversion on the 2011 return to be consistent with the disclosure in the organizational audited financial statements. At the time of filing this return, the organization has recouped $300,000 through general liability insurance coverage. Shepherds recorded both a receivable and an allowance for the estimated $150,000 in additional misappropriated funds on the 2012 financial statements and tax return. Under the direction of legal counsel, a full forensic audit was conducted and an outside, independent consultant was retained to review all internal controls, policies and procedures. Corrective measures have been taken to insure the potential for reoccurrence of such misappropriations does not exist. The investigation and prosecution is currently being handled by the FBI and the US Attorney, Eastern Division, Milwaukee, WI.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Board members and officers are required to disclose potential conflicts on an annual basis. The board chairman and board secretary monitor the process. It is the responsibility of each board member to state if a matter is a conflict of interest for them and either abstain from voting or leave the room for that discussion.
		The Foundation does not compensate these persons. This question has been marked "no" in accordance with the instructions.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request.
Executive Committee	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 1a	The Executive Committee shall include all officers of the corporation who are directors of the corporation, the chairperson of each of the standing committees, except the Board Development Committee, and additional members of the Board who shall be known as Members at Large and who shall be elected annually at the time of election of officers. The Executive Committee shall conduct the business of the Corporation between regular Board of Directors meetings within the general policies set by the Board of Directors.
Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances	Form 990, Part XI, line 9	Change in value of annuities 5,881. Change in value of trusts 10,165. Change in value of beneficial interests 41,263.
