Criteria for Poster Contests

Students are given specific requirements for the posters they are to create. For example, one of our poster contests had the following requirements:

Posters submitted should recognize and incorporate the recent efforts various members of the Loudoun County community (i.e. businesses, schools, civic organizations) have made in going “green.” A few examples include:

- “Green Friday” – encouraging shoppers to buy locally produced gifts the Friday after Thanksgiving
- A number of buildings in the county are LEED (Leadership in Environmental and Energy Design) certified by the US Green Building Council including the Loudoun County School Administration Building and NOVA Community College - Loudoun Campus
- Loudoun County boasts Virginia’s first community of solar powered homes in Round Hill
- Middleburg distributed more than 4,000 energy efficient light bulbs to residents last April

The theme is intentionally broad; for example, students can focus on depicting a particular way in which the county has become more environmentally friendly (i.e. building more green buildings) or can incorporate multiple ways. Regardless, the submission should clearly show how the county is showing its commitment to protect the environment for years to come!

Posters are then evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Originality
- Artistic Merit
- Portrayal of Theme
- Reproducibility as an effective PR piece for Capitol Hill event

Criteria for Essay Contests

Essays are evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Content
- Creativity
- Adhering to essay format
- Addressing the questions
