Footnotes | Statement 7

Statement regarding Part VII-B, Line 1b:

The Foundation made payments during 2012 in the amount of $52,279 to Templeton Capital Management (TCM), a single member limited liability company whose sole member during 2012 was Wilfred S. Templeton, a disqualified person with respect to the Foundation. TCM was therefore also a disqualified person with respect to the Foundation in 2012. Mr. Templeton died prior to the filing of this Form 990-PF and left TCM to the Foundation.

The payments noted above were made by the Foundation to TCM under a services agreement for personal services, as well as for the pro-rata pass-through payment of utility and property tax expenses due to unrelated third parties.

The Foundation's position is that no self-dealing transaction occurred with respect to these payments, including the pass-through of utility and property tax expenses due third parties. The Foundation's office was owned by another disqualified person business entity and was provided otherwise without charge to the Foundation. This potential self-dealing issue came to light recently in connection with a compliance review of the Foundation.

In any event, even if the Service were to take an adverse position regarding the payment of such expenses while the entity receiving the pass-through funds was a disqualified person, as noted above, the Foundation's founder died prior to the filing of this Form 990-PF and left both disqualified person entities (TCM and the entity holding the Foundation office parcel) to the Foundation. As such, neither entity should be treated as a disqualified person any longer, and a correction would have occurred as of the date of death, since the right to receive all assets of both entities became fixed and passed to the Foundation on that date.

Finally, Section 53.4941(e)-1(c)(1) of the regulations states, with respect to corrections of self-dealing transactions, that "in no case shall the resulting financial position of the private foundation be worse than that which it would be if the disqualified person were dealing under the highest fiduciary standards." Therefore, even if a self-dealing transaction took place, and even if the founder's death did not automatically correct the transaction, because the founder left practically his entire estate to the Foundation (and both relevant entities), there is no mechanism for correcting the transaction and paying an excise tax without putting the Foundation in a worse financial position, which would be directly contrary to the intent of the applicable regulations.

Restrictions and Limitations on Awards

The Templeton Foundation supports faith-based ministries that both help others come to know Jesus Christ as the Lord of their lives and encourage spiritual growth. The Templeton Foundation looks for projects and/or programs which can serve as catalytic agents for change and continued growth after the specific project or program has been completed. All requests must be well matched to the size and capabilities of the organization making the request. The primary focus of support will be to Manatee and Sarasota counties of Florida. However, requests from other geographic locations will be considered as long as they are from a qualified U.S. based tax-exempt organization.
