Form 990-EZ Part III Line 28 We piloted our Healthy Families Project with a combination of individual donations and grants from foundations that share our values to treat almost 400 malnourished children with nutritional supplement, hold workshops for their mothers on nutrition and health, and provide training and materials to their families to produce more food and improve the health of their homes. We worked with our Chiapas partners to define a 3-year Healthy Families Project and consolidated a group of committed donors to support its financing through the Healthy Families Campaign. We visited our partners in Chiapas to learn more about the programs our donations support and to better understand the administration and financial management of their organization. We hosted our fourth group of visitors from Chiapas for a full itinerary that included educational presentations, interviews in print, radio and television media, meetings with donors and local organization, and our annual fundraiser

Form 990-EZ Part III Line 28 We made progress in implementing our 3-year Strategic Plan to increase our funding capacity for programs in Chiapas, including formulating a major campaign for 2013 and identifying several additional foundations to approach for funding to complement
