28 The organization provided the Nepal Economic and Agricultural Trade (NEAT) Activity the following services: Provided content expertise to help NEAT establish a robust conference agenda, identify speakers, and to serve as conference moderator during the Nepal Mobile Money Summit. We performed the following functions: 1. Coordinate and reach agreement with the Technical Program Coordinator, NEAT program and home office (HO) staff, and USAID on the date, time, agenda, and outputs of the conference. 2. Work with the Technical Program Coordinator, NEAT program and HO staff to identify and select speakers. 3. In coordination with the event team, identify the main topics to be presented during the conference. 4. In collaboration with HO staff, provide support as needed for international speakers. Such support may include, for example, facilitating personal connections and providing assistance to secure commitments from speakers. Assist the NEAT team to identify and secure alternative speakers if initial speakers are not available. 5. Conduct screening interviews of the proposed international speakers as deemed necessary. This could include having discussions with speakers to ensure they understand the topics they will be presenting. 6. Review draft presentations, if available in advance of the conference, to ensure high quality and eliminate redundancy among presentations. 7. Alert team members of any special requirements of the international speakers. 8. Arrive in Nepal early to meet with key stakeholders and to ensure their key needs will be addressed during the conference. 9. Actively participate in the mMoney conference as a moderator and possible discussant. 10. Communicate by email on a continuous basis with the NEAT Chief of Party and Microfinance Manager on conference planning progress.
