Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part I line 2		The woman must show up for her appointment, complete the application, budget and her current development plan. She should provide current income validation for all in the household and proof of financial need (i.e., rent, utility, medical, mental health or phone bill, etc.). The landlord, utilities, health, mental health service is contacted (with signed consent to share this info faxed if required) to let the appropriate party know that a woman is working with Women Partnering. (When possible, we also help the woman receive assistance from other organizations). The general maximum amount of financial assistance from Women Partnering is $250. Staff have the option of an additional $250 for exceptional circumstances/good cause. Any amount over $500 should be approved by the Board. The case must be documented thoroughly and the outcome must be positive & predictable. The assistance must have a good risk-ratior & should not exceed the given threshold. The funds are paid directly to the provider group/person, never directly to the woman. Receipts are expected. All transactions are logged in Quickbooks & each woman's file. Transportation stipends ($5) and childcare stipends ($10) are given each time a woman participates in most enhancement programs, after she completes a measure tied to growth in knowledge, skill and behavior. Each woman must date, sign, and identify amount received and program attended.

Supplemental Information		FORM 990, PART III, LINE 1 - Organization's Mission (Continuation) This network works with others to provide services to those financially vulnerable women and children, raise awareness of their plight, and, where appropriate and subject to applicable IRS limits, advocate policy change on their behalf FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4A - Program Service (Continuation) Assistance is given in order to prevent occupancy eviction or utilities turn off and assist with other basic needs The women are engaged in an individual development plan through which Women Partnering links them with critical resources in the community, while assisting them with basic needs Through Women Partnering's connections with the broader community, they are able to facilitate a collateral match process in which their financial assistance is matched on average by a 1-1 ratio by community resources (money and durable medical and basic-need goods) FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4B - Program Service (Continuation) It is three-dimensional (a) a bi-monthly gathering of women where women share their needs, experiences, hopes, and spiritual journeys It provides opportunities for prayer ritual, reflection, social interaction, storytelling, and networking, (b) a bi-monthly prayer group where women on the same spiritual path explore their spiritual journeys with prayer, reflection, and sharing It serves as a regular, intentional space during which women focus on their inner life and receive insights and affirmations for their individual questions to know and honor the divine image within, and (c) a weekend retreat held annually at Mount St Francis for women It is designed as a time for women to come together and through sharing and reflecting, experience connectedness and spiritual renewal FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4C - Program Service (Continuation) Women Partnering integrates life-skill development through 1-1 mentoring, drop-inn centers, enrichment days and Children's Life Skill and Literacy classes Through Women Partnering's spiritual networking, they provide group opportunities that advance spiritual well-being Through community networking, Women Partnering grows relationships with organizations in the community to ensure better service, increased collaboration, and less duplication Through policy networking, Women Partnering partners with groups in the community and beyond to raise awareness of the plight of financially vulnerable women and children, and, where appropriate and subject to IRS limits, advocate policy change and implementation on their behalf FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION A, LINE 6 The sole member of Women Partnering, Inc is the Sisters of Saint Francis of Colorado Springs, Inc , a Colorado nonprofit corporation FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION A, LINE 7A The Sisters of Saint Francis of Colorado Springs, Inc may elect one or more members of the governing body FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION A, LINE 7B Decisions of the appointment and removal of members of the board of directors and officers, approval of the articles of incorporation and bylaws (and amendments), approval of a change of purpose, approval of the sale or transfer of real or personal property, and approval of the merger, consolidation, or dissolution of the corporation FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 11B Members of the Women Partnering finance committee present the final draft of the tax form 990 to the Women Partnering board who then approves the final draft The president of the Women Partnering corporation then authorizes the accounting firm to electronically file the return FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 12C Annually, the chairperson of the Women Partnering board reviews the conflict of interest policy with the board members, which requires that Each board member and officer of the corporation provide the board periodically with knowledge of any situation which is or appears to be in conflict with his or her responsibilities to the corporation, or association with (a) any agency associated with the corporation, or (b) the corporate office(s) of the system of which the agencies or corporations are members The Secretary of the Corporation circulates the Conflict of Interest Policy Document to each board member and officer of the Corporation with the direction that any such board member and officer report and disclose to the Board in writing, as soon as practical, but no less frequently than annually, anything involving a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest with his or her duties to the Corporation Each board member and officer also agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the information that is gained during the course of my service to Women Partnering and to use that information only to fulfill her/his fiduciary duty to the corporation In addition, during the board orientation for each new board member, this policy is reviewed and each board member is required to sign the Conflict of Interest Statement FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15 Women Partnering follows the Mount Saint Francis personnel policies for determining compensation for the CEO and key employees Established salary ranges and job classifications for the CEO and key employees are developed and maintained by the human resource department Comparisons for salary information are gathered from benchmarked industry practices, including the Mountain States Employers' Council These are reviewed frequently to assure that we attract qualified persons, encourage and reward high levels of performance and comply with state and federal laws regarding wages and benefits There is a formal job description, which is revised as needed and a corresponding annual performance review Pay raises are determined by performance and ministry ability to generate revenue Pertaining to officers, the Women Partnering bylaws read directors shall not receive compensation for their services as such, however, the reasonable expenses of directors of attendance at board meetings may be paid or reimbursed by the corporation Directors shall not be disqualified to receive reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the benefit of the corporation in any other capacity FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION C, LINE 19 In all of Women Partnering's presentations to the public, they communicate that their form 990 is available for review Upon request, they provide this document in printed form This document is also available on Guide Star In all of their presentations to the
