Form 990 Part III Line 3 At the present time the organization does not conduct two of the the three programs that qualifies it for tax exemption. It does however lease its church building to another 501(c)3 religious organization that regualey conducts services and preforms outreach services to the community, which does qulify as to further the filing organizations tax exempt purpose. The Organization does participate in other activities that further its tax exempt purpose such as conducting weekend thrift sales for the community, which consists of the selling of its donated clothing at below discounted rates. The organization uses all income that it recieves from all areas to complete its Phase 1 Social Hall / Soup Kitchen. The organization is focused on completing Phase 1 as soon as possible so that it can again provide food to the hungry and those in need. Phase 2 Shelter Services should commince after the completion of Phase 1 and be complete by the end of year 2013.

Form 990 Part III Line 4a Faith Outreach / Religious Services Church Building currently is leased to another tax exempt organization that provides to the filing organization rental income monthly for the upkeep of the building and the maintenance of the grounds, it also pays 50% of the incurred utility costs regarding the church building to the filing organization.

All income earned from the lease and reinbursement of utilities are made available to the adminstrative account to help with the costs of the Phase 1 and 2 construction costs. The listed expenses line does not depict the amount paid by the leasee as the leasee only provides for utilities and not all expenses incurred by the church building. The revenue listed is for a 12 month period starting Jan. until Dec. although the lease runs Feb. until Jan.

Form 990 Part III Line 4b Social Hall / Soup Kitchen is currently in the construction Phase and should be completed by July 2013. The activity has no grants but the majority of the organizations cash contributions and donations recieved are allocated to complete the project.

The expense line for this activity is based on the current cost of construction, plans, city fees and county required permits ot operate. Please see Part IX Line 24a-d for further
