Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions)

Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds

For all our project partners, we require the following:

- A yearly audit report by a chartered accountant
- Periodic reports and photos
- Forms such as case histories, child left home report, progress report and applications for college scholarships

We have regular monthly contact by phone, email and post. The home or its parent organization must have state sanctioned charitable status, such as FCRA status in India.

Beginning in 2010 World's Children contracted the services of a nonprofit in India called the Spandana Society to help us monitor, evaluate and communicate more effectively with the orphanages and hostels we support in India.

The 48 orphanages assisted by World's Children help WC publicize the availability of the scholarships. Another significant contributor to the scholarship process is a Nursing School, the E.T.C.M. Hospital School of Nursing in Kolar, India. This school offers recipients of scholarships through WC an additional discount of 50% off of their tuition. If a student has remaining fees, they can work off the fees at the E.T.C.M. hospital upon graduation.

Part V - Additional Information

Part II, Column (d):

Grants to all organizations included grants for child sponsorship to provide nutritious food, clothing, school uniforms and books, medical care, personal items and other necessities.

In addition to caring for children through our child sponsorship program in the amount of $276,254, World's Children also performed special projects to improve the infrastructure for the children. We funded three water storage tanks, three toilet buildings, a daycare center for children of stone breakers, two generators, solar power, one water filter; we gave money for orphanage repairs, ceiling fans, library books, tables and benches, warm clothing and vegetable gardens. $70,616 went out for these projects in 2012. Also, $1,019 non cash awards were granted in the form of software, toys, books, supplies, and a TV and DVD player.

Special Project: Balavikasitha Orphanage Building Project, 2012

accomplishments: World's Children completed the funding for building a permanent orphanage for the Balavikasitha Orphanage in Hyderabad, India. We sponsor 32 children at this home. This home takes care of the most at-risk wandering the streets. No one wants to rent to these orphans so the donors of World's Children is building them a permanent home. This has been a three year project with disbursements for the building given in installments.

In addition, 95 students participated in the scholarship program in 2012 by World's Children. 20 students graduated. World's Children contributed $43,540 for scholarships. Scholarships average $500/year per student. Graduates have the opportunity to pursue a viable career. Students are pursuing degrees in areas such as: Nursing, Engineering, Biotechnology, Economics, Finance, Commerce, Accounting, Computers, Teaching, Mathematics, and Social Work. We have a very high success rate. This year one student dropped her course because of poor grades, but all our other students are working diligently to complete their degrees if they have not already.

World's Children also performed special projects to improve the infrastructure for children that we serve. We funded three water storage tanks, three toilet buildings, a daycare center for children of stone breakers, two generators, solar power, one water filter; we gave money for orphanage repairs, ceiling fans, library books, tables and benches, warm clothing and vegetable gardens.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

A draft is emailed to the board members and comments are solicited and reviewed before the document is finalized. The executive committee is responsible to review every line item in detail.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The organization demands written disclosure of conflict of interest as a situation arises. Once the disclosure is made, the interested party leaves the discussion while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted on by the remaining board members. The chairperson of the governing board shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction. If no alternative arrangements are found to be possible, the governing board shall determine by majority vote of disinterested directors whether the arrangement involving the conflict of interest is in the best interests of the organization. If the governing board determines a member has failed to disclose a conflict of interest, the offender is given the opportunity to explain. The governing board has the authority to take appropriate disciplinary action if the member has indeed failed to disclose a conflict of interest. All such proceedings are recorded.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
The bylaws call for an annual review to determine, among other things, whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the result of arm's length bargaining. In addition, comparability data is reviewed when determining compensation.
