students in June at commencement ceremonies. The recipients are chosen by school faculty based on criteria set forth by the Foundation. This criteria is that the student must attain a grade point average of at least 85 or higher, must intend to enroll in a post-secondary or trade school and must clearly demonstrate a commitment to public service and express a desire to pursue a public interest or public service career upon graduation. These scholarships are meant to promote education and encourage young men and women to pursue fields of knowledge or careers that are in the public's best interest, both honoring and perpetuating the Foundation's namesake, who was killed in action while serving in the United States Military.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 29, Program Service Accomplishments:

The Foundation provides funding for youth recreation and educational activities in the town of Highland and surrounding communities in the form of team sponsorship and providing financial assistance to children desiring to participate who may not have the financial means. This program will promote the ideals of teamwork and community exemplified by the Foundation's namesake as a youth sports participant and public servant.
