In their dealings with and on behalf of Food For Free, they will be held to a strict standard of honest and fair dealing.

Directors must scrupulously avoid any conflict between their individual interests and the interests of Food For Free in any and all actions they take. They are to disclose any interests or activities in which they are involved or become involved, directly or indirectly, that could conflict with the interests or activities of Food For Free, or that might influence their votes, decisions or recommendations made in the context of their duties to the organization, and need to obtain approval prior to commencing, continuing, or consummating any activity or transaction that raises a possible conflict of interest.

Directors are also obliged to disclose any potential conflict of interest arising from the interests and activities of their spouses, dependents, siblings, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law or parents ("immediate family").

Failure to comply with this Policy may disqualify a person from serving as a Director or, if already serving as a Director, may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal, subject to the terms of any applicable employment agreement or, in the case of a Director who is a member of the Board of Directors, the Director will be deemed to have resigned.

Section 2. Permitted Interested Transactions

Food For Free may purchase goods or services from or otherwise contract with an entity in which a Director has a direct or indirect financial interest (a "director-affiliated entity") provided that (i) such transaction does not constitute self-dealing under Section 4941 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, if said Section is applicable to Food For Free, and is not in violation of any other federal, state or local law applicable to the organization, and (ii) a majority of the Board of Directors consisting of non-interested Directors have determined that:

- a. The terms of the transaction are fair and reasonable and competitive with what the Food For Free could receive from a non-director-affiliated entity using reasonable efforts;
- b. The transaction is otherwise in the best interest of Food For Free;
- c. The nature of the Director's involvement in the director-affiliated entity has been fully disclosed in accordance with this Policy; and
- d. The interested Director has not voted on the transaction nor been counted toward a quorum at any meeting held to act on the transaction.

A Director may take advantage of a personal business opportunity that may be of interest to, competitive with, or impact the interests of, Food For Free if:

- a. The Director has fully disclosed the opportunity in accordance with this Policy;
- b. The opportunity has not arisen out of any impermissible use of confidential or proprietary information of Food For Free;
- c. A majority of the Board of Directors consisting of non-interested Directors has determined that Food For Free has no present interest in availing itself of the opportunity and that the Director may take advantage of the opportunity.

Section 3. Potential Conflicts

A conflict of interest exists in any instance in which a Director's personal activities or interests conflict with the activities or interests of Food For Free. Although it is impossible to list every circumstance giving rise to a possible conflict of interest, the following will serve as examples of the types of activities that might give rise to such a conflict and that should be reported in a detailed and timely fashion to the President and Director of the Board of Directors (the "President") or his or her designee.

Section 4. Outside Interests and Opportunities

a. To hold, directly or indirectly, a financial interest (including rendering directorial, managerial, consultative, or other services) in any outside company, organization or concern that the Director has reason to believe makes payments to or receives payments from Food For Free (whether on account of goods, grants or other transactions), or that provides services in competition with Food For Free.

b. To compete, directly or indirectly, with Food For Free in the purchase or sale of property or any property right, interest or service.

c. To accept or take advantage of a business opportunity that the Director knows or has reason to know may be of interest to or competitive with Food For Free.

d. To accept or take advantage of a business opportunity of which the Director has become aware by virtue of such Director's service to Food For Free.

Section 5. Gifts and Entertainment

To accept a gift, entertainment, or other material benefit from any person or concern that does, or is seeking to do, business with, or is a competitor of, or is or is seeking to be the recipient of a grant from, Food For Free under circumstances from which it might be reasonably inferred that such gift, entertainment, or other material benefit was intended to influence or possibly would influence the Director in the performance of the Director's duties to Food For Free.

Section 6. Procedures

As soon as any potential conflict of interest described above, or any situation as to which a Director may be in doubt, comes to the attention of a Director, full disclosure must be made to the President or the President's designee, so as to permit an impartial and objective determination of whether a real or potential conflict of interest exists. The President, or his or her designee, will consult with the disclosing Director and with such other individuals as he or she may deem appropriate.

If after such consultation the President, or his or her designee, deems a real or potential conflict of interest to exist, then he or she may require that the Director, among other things, disclose the real or potential conflict of interest to the Board of Directors and refrain from voting on the matter on behalf of Food For Free.

Any Director having a real or potential conflict of interest on any matter as determined by the President or his or her designee will not vote or use such Director's personal influence on the matter and will not be counted in determining a quorum for action on the matter even where permitted by law. The minutes of any meeting should reflect that a full and accurate disclosure was made, that the Director abstained from voting and that a quorum was otherwise present. At the request of the Board of Directors or any Director, the Director having a real or potential conflict of interest will be excused from any portion of any meeting in which the matter is to be discussed and voted upon.

The foregoing requirements will not be construed as preventing a Director having a real or potential conflict of interest from briefly stating such Director's position on the matter nor from answering pertinent questions of other Directors since such Director's knowledge may be of great assistance in enabling the Directors to fulfill their fiduciary duties to Food For Free.

At least annually the Board of Directors will review standard relationships with banks, insurance firms, investment advisors, and other entities serving Food For Free to assure that the relationship is in the best interest of Food For Free and is otherwise consistent with the terms of this Policy.

This Policy will be reviewed annually by the Board of Directors, and each new Director will be advised of the Policy prior to selection or appointment as a Director and will be required to sign and return the attached Conflict of Interest Policy Acknowledgement form and to disclose any potential conflicts of interest prior to assuming a Directorship.

Section 7. Director-Affiliated Vendors: Relationships with the Corporation

A director-affiliated vendor providing goods or services to Food For Free will conduct all business relating to the contract through the usual channels for administration of Food For Free's contracts, and the affected Director will scrupulously refrain from using such Director's position as a Director to negotiate, conduct, or arbitrate contractual matters.

Policy for Board Approval of Compensation
Food For Free Committee

The Executive Director of Food For Free, Inc. (the "Nonprofit") is the principal representative of Food For Free, and the person responsible for the efficient operation of the Nonprofit. Therefore, it is the desire of the Nonprofit to provide a fair yet reasonable and not excessive compensation for the Executive Director (and any other highly compensated employees and consultants).

The annual process for determining compensation is as follows: The Board of Directors shall annually evaluate the Executive Director on his/her performance, and ask for his/her input on matters of performance and compensation.

Board Approval. The Executive Committee will obtain research and information to make a recommendation to the full board for the compensation (salary and benefits) of the Executive Director (and other highly compensated employees or consultants) based on a review of comparability data. For example, the Executive Committee will secure data that documents compensation levels and benefits for similarly qualified individuals in comparable positions at similar organizations. This data may include the following:

1. Salary and benefit compensation studies by independent sources;
2. Written job offers for positions at similar organizations;
3. Documented telephone calls about similar positions at both nonprofit and for-profit organizations;
4. Information obtained from the IRS Form 990 filings of similar organizations.

Concurrent Documentation. To approve the compensation for the Executive Director (and other highly compensated employees and consultants) the board must document how it reached its decisions, including the data on which it relied, in minutes of the meeting during which the compensation was approved. Documentation will include:

- a) A description of the compensation and benefits and the date it was approved;
- b) The members of the board who were present during the discussion about compensation and benefits, and the results of the vote;
- c) A description of the comparability data relied upon and how the data was obtained; and
- d) Any actions taken (such as abstaining from discussion and vote) with respect to consideration of the compensation by anyone who is otherwise a member of the board but who had a conflict of interest with respect to the decision on the compensation and benefits.

Independence in Setting Compensation: The President of the board of directors, who is a volunteer and not compensated by the Nonprofit, will operate independently without undue influence from the Executive Director.

No member of the Executive Committee will be a staff member, the relative of a staff member, or have any relationship with staff that could present a conflict of interest.
