Line 10: We had one major contributor, Mrs. Elaine Kligerman, who contributed $100,631 as shares of common stock.

Line 17a: The NBS Classical Music Institute maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public and community. This is accomplished by the giving of numerous public concerts throughout the year at which contributions are solicited. In addition, each year, a national classical music performance competition is held which produces revenue from (1) contributions of attendees, (2) fees from the competitors, and (3) ads in the programs. The first of these qualifies as public contributions, reported on Line 1 of the 990, while the last two are reported as fundraising income on Line 6b. This year, because of general economic conditions, we did not hold the competition. This has resulted in decreases in Lines 1 and 6b over past years.

We also participate in a township monthly Friday night tour of the business community, called "First Friday", for which we hold a concert. We are able to solicit contributions from the public that may not normally attend our other concerts.

Our general public contributions, outside of these special events, has also fallen over the past several years, we believe. With an improving economy, we expect to improve these contributions as well.
