Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	SEPA is the sole corporate member of the organization

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The Board of Directors of SEPA has the authority to appoint members of the governing body

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b	The governing body can make recommendations for certain types of actions that require approval by the Board of Directors of SEPA. Some examples include appointing or removing members of the governing board, amending Articles of Incorporation, and amending bylaws.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The organization took steps to educate management, members of the board and members of appropriate subcommittees of the board on the compliance requirements mandated by the Form 990. It continues to maintain a process to address questions or concerns surrounding tax reporting requirements. The Form 990 is reviewed by management and the SEPA Audit & Compliance Committee, which is a subcommittee of the SEPA Board of Trustees. The full board is appraised of the committee's findings from their review.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization has adopted SEPA's Policy 96-04-09 which sets forth the organization's conflict-of-interest policy and processes. Annually, all those serving the organization and affiliates in a position to affect business decisions, including directors, officers, members of a board designated committee, and key employees and physicians, receive a copy of the policy and annual disclosure statement to be completed. Disclosures of financial interest or other reportable circumstances as defined in the policy are submitted and reviewed by SEPA's Board or senior management as defined in the policy. The determination of whether a disclosure constitutes a conflict of interest is made by SEPA's Board or an appropriate committee thereof comprised of disinterested persons and without the participation of the affected individual except to respond to questions about the disclosure. Lastly, the policy addresses potential disciplinary action for violations of the policy. The policy is available to the public upon request.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The organization relies on CHE, a related Section 501(c)(3) organization, and on CHE's procedures to determine the compensation of the CEO. For other employees, the organization has adopted SEPA's process for determining compensation which includes the following: SEPA's Board has an independent committee to review and approve all elements of remuneration. SEPA's Board and the independent committee have established a compensation philosophy which details the objectives of market positioning and pay elements. The committee engages with external consultants to provide market data comparing roles to similarly sized health systems utilizing both title and job content comparisons. The committee reviews the market analysis, approves any salary adjustments for the executive population, considers both reasonableness and effectiveness of all remunerative programs and establishes the detailed performance expectations which are incorporated into the incentive plan. All of these discussions and decisions are documented through the provision of meeting minutes.
