Schedule I, Part I, Item No. 2: Describe in Part IV the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States.

Grants awarded by Risen Resources, INC. ("RRI") are paid to various churches or other Section 501(c)(3) organizations that are responsible for the ultimate oversight of the duties and tasks performed by the minister or other secondary beneficiary of a grant. Notwithstanding, since such grants awarded typically are paid out in approximately equal installments over a period of time of twelve consecutive months, RRI requires that recipients provide periodic progress reports to the RRI Executive Director. The RRI Executive Director reviews the reports and monitors the progress of the grant recipient's ministry activities to ensure that the conditions of the grant are continually met during the payout period of the grant.

FORM 990 Part VI, Line 11a: The initial draft of Form 990 (and related schedules) is prepared by the Treasurer of RISEN RESOURCES, INC.

Following review and draft finalization with the collaboration of the organization's Executive Director, Form 990 is distributed to and reviewed during a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of RISEN RESOURCES, INC., at which time a general discussion of financial condition of the organization is also conducted. A complete copy of the Form 990 (and related schedules) to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service is provided to all members of the Board of Directors prior to filing the return.

FORM 990 Part VI, Line 12c: Pursuant to the organization's conflict of interest policy, directors are under continual obligation to make the other directors aware of any interest or relationship that could give rise to a conflict of interest. In addition, the grant application requires any applicant to disclose a related party relationship with any of the organization's directors. The Executive Director discusses and reviews each grant application with the Board of Directors. Such review and deliberation includes discussing the existence of related party or conflict of interest issues, if any.

FORM 990 Part VI, Line 15a: Although information about comparable compensation paid by similarly-situated tax-exempt organizations is somewhat limited, such information, to the extent available, is given consideration in the determination of setting a reasonable compensation level for the Executive Director. Greater consideration is given to the earnings history and executive capability in determining the compensation of the Executive Director. The Executive Director has no voting right with regard to the determination of the compensation package and is excused from any portion of the organization's board meetings that include discussions regarding such compensation.

FORM 990 Part VI, Line 19: The governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements (as disclosed in the annual Form 990 filing) of RISEN RESOURCES, INC. are made available to the public following written request for same.
