Performance

In the performance side of the PAA, the following activities were successfully undertaken. Rehearsals for each production included voice and performance instruction. Participants came from approximately 13 area communities. In 2012, 10 musical theatre productions were accomplished.

Each production involved working with youth for 3 to 14 weeks. Objectives accomplished included the education of children in performance, music and dance through theatre arts. They received the opportunity to gain self-confidence, self-discipline and enrichment within their lives, experienced the value of working with others towards a common goal, and provided to the community productions which displayed “excellence” in all aspects. Success has been measured by tracking the attendance in music and theatre classes, tracking the number of returning students and the low drop-out rate. Another measure is the superior and excellent ratings the PAA students receive at the Ohio Music Education Association solo and ensemble contests.

Expenses for the combined performances were as follows:
