Seminar:

This program is intended to organize annually two SEMINARS in East Asia to provide China pastors with a top-notched training in Bible, theology & Christian ministry by using world-renowned Bible scholars as faculty About one hundred pastors were enrolled into our seminar each time. Assignments were required of each pastor that took about 6 months to complete from beginning to end, including one week of intensive training when all pastors got together for thirty-six hours of class lectures & ten hours in small group discussion Assignment usually included reading 300 pages of materials (such as a bible commentary and related articles), a 6-page reading report; preaching two sermons or teaching two lessons, and a 12-page essay completed with footnotes and a bibliography. Most students pay for their meals and lodging in the seminar, and for textbooks used in their reading. We do charge students for tuition. Donations from individuals and churches are used to cover expenses such as transportation for our professors & interpreters; translation cost for reading materials from English into Simplified Chinese; leasing of facilities to hold our seminar; purchasing of equipment and supplies, and fees for grading student assignments
