Guidelines for Grant Application

The Deena Jo Heide-Diesslin Foundation was established for the purpose of making gifts and grants in accordance with the restrictions imposed on organizations exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The role of The Deena Jo Heide-Diesslin Foundation is to focus attention on important charitable issues and institutions. This can best be done by encouraging both new and established nonprofit organizations to develop new programs which address these issues or to expand existing programs which fill gaps in the existing programs.

Applications are not accepted for grants to individuals.

The enclosed outline should be used to prepare a grant application. Applications should be brief but complete enough to explain the project. When an application is received, it will be reviewed for thoroughness and the receipt acknowledged. The Deena Jo Heide-Diesslin Foundation may request a meeting with the proposer to discuss the application.

The Board of Directors meets in June and November to review all completed applications which meet grant guidelines. Deadlines for applications are June 1 and November 1, as applicable. Applicants should not contact members of the Board to discuss proposals. All applicants will be notified as soon as a decision is made concerning their request. Each application is given individualized attention and the review process is flexible enough to meet needs as they emerge.

For further information, email D. Bradley Bourland at The Deena Jo Heide-Diesslin Foundation office at Brad.Bourland@Diesslin.com.
