The Forms 990 and 990-T are reviewed by the Post's officers, then presented to the membership for acceptance. As part of this process, the returns are discussed and reviewed with the membership. The membership then votes to accept the returns.

Part VI, Line 19

The Post makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to anyone, member or non-member who desires to see them. All a person has to do is request to see them. Such requests can be made by letter, telephone (the telephone number is in the phone book), or in person. Arrangements will then be made to provide that person access to the documents.

Part VI, Line 1

The governing body of the Post is the entire membership. All matters are reviewed and approved by the membership.
