Late Filing

The predecessor club, Coastal Georgia Region of Savannah, AACA, Inc., was form in 1990, but in 2012 was made aware that, as a result in reporting requirements for non-for-profit organizations, it had lost its not-for-profit status with the IRS and with the State of Georgia. Therefore, the club decided to apply to Georgia for new name and at the same time applied and received a new federal identification number from the Internal Revenue Service. The newly formed club applied to the IRS for tax exempt status using Form 1023 and was notified in August 2014, via letter dated Aug 06 2014, that such status was granted, effective October 18, 2012. Therefore, we have prepared form 990-PF, as instructed in the letter of August 6, 2014, for both 2012 and 2013. We respectively request that any penalties that could be assessed due to the late filing of these forms be waived as we attempted to complete our accounting records and file the required forms as quickly as possible. We intent to be on time from this point forward.
