Since the grants are to the local school system and primarily for community related program services, the funds are invoiced to FOBSE by the School District. Copies of the invoices for which FOBSE reimburses the School district are on file. Results of the use of those funds is readily evident in the community. Individual projects are monitored by the officers of FOBSE.

The funds have been used for primarily construction projects, so the final results are easy to see. Other non-construction program services are monitored by community volunteers.
