Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Community Impact Programs

Investing community funds through an annual citizen review process is the backbone of United Way. The community investment system fosters accountability & local control by using community volunteers. This objective review & evaluation enhances the credibility of the local nonprofit sector. The Community Impact system is founded upon the principles of stewardship & community engagement. Contributors trust United Way to utilize their charitable donations selectively & wisely. Panels develop strategies for the Board of Directors that are accountable to donors, responsive to the needs of the community & inclusive of programs attractive to givers.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Programs

Food Network Program -- In the summer of 2009 the United Way recognized the increased pressure the food pantries in Elkhart County were under as a result of the economic downturn. United Way met with the major pantries of the county to discuss more effective ways to collaborate & run food drives. The United Way agreed to set up a designated fund to handle financial contributions for these drives & to continue to act as the convening body of the group.
