INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
McDermott Will & Emery Charitable Foundation:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the McDermott Will & Emery Charitable Foundation (the "Foundation"), which comprise the statements of assets and net assets — cash basis as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of revenue, expenses, and changes in net assets — cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements — cash basis.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2 to the financial statements; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Foundation's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Foundation's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and net assets — cash basis of the Foundation as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and its revenue, expenses, and changes in net assets — cash basis for the years then ended in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Report on Supplemental Schedule

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule on pages 8-11 is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. This schedule is the responsibility of the Foundation's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. Such schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such schedule directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, such schedule is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — CASH BASIS AS OF AND FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2012 AND 2011

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

The McDermott Will & Emery Charitable Foundation (the "Foundation") is a nonprofit organization that receives all of its funding from approximately 260 domestic capital partners of the international law firm partnership of McDermott Will & Emery LLP (the "Firm"), its employees, as well as the Firm. The Foundation's purpose is to support the efforts and projects solely of other charitable organizations through the disbursement of donations and grants. The capital partners make recommendations and the Foundation's management ultimately decides which charitable organizations receive funding. The Firm funds all contributions except amounts designated to other organizations by donors and intends to fund any future commitments in excess of net assets.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Method of Reporting — The Foundation's financial statements are prepared using the cash basis of accounting. Under this method of accounting, revenue is recognized when received in cash rather than when earned, and expenditures and grants are recognized when paid rather than when the obligations are incurred, which differs from the accrual basis of accounting, which is required under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Amounts Designated to Other Organizations by Donors — Contributions designated by donors for use by specific beneficiaries are presented on the statements of revenue, expenses, and changes in net assets — cash basis as a contra revenue account in the same period the contribution revenue is recorded and, therefore, excluded from Foundation expenses when the amount is contributed to the donor designated organization. As of December 31, 2012 and 2011, all such amounts were contributed to the donor designated organization.

Subsequent Events — For the year ended December 31, 2012, the Foundation has evaluated all subsequent events through April 30, 2013, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. EXPENSES PAID BY RELATED PARTY

Certain administrative expenses related to the Foundation, including postage and audit fees, are absorbed by the Firm and are not reflected in the Foundation's financial statements.

4. INCOME TAXES
