ARTICLE I

PURPOSES

The purposes of the corporation are those stated in the Articles of Incorporation, as amended. The corporation is a family foundation whose goal is to do good in a responsible way and to support the family values of the Logan Family.

The areas which the corporation primarily intends to fund are:

1. Education in areas, including, but not limited to:
 - (a) The arts
 - (b) Literature
 - (c) Medicine;
2. Community and Social Welfare:
 - (a) Elderly
 - (b) Children
 - (c) Gay and lesbian
 - (d) Disadvantaged and underserved populations
 - (e) Volunteerism;
3. Jewish life and concerns;
4. Public Service and Civil Society as influenced by:
 - (a) Social change
 - (b) Media
 - (c) Empowerment
 - (d) Leadership development; and

5. Maintain or support a library of modern illustrated and photographic books.

In implementing these goals, the corporation intends on the whole to be a catalyst for well chosen projects that would not be successful without our creative or financial support. We primarily intend to concentrate on a few such projects. We expect to learn a lot about our choices and about ourselves.

The corporation may make grants to, or partner with, community foundations or any Section 501(c)(3) entities, as described in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

ARTICLE II

OFFICES

Section 1. Principal Office. The principal office of the corporation in the State of Illinois shall be located in the City of Chicago and County of Cook. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Illinois, as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

Section 2. Registered Office. The registered office of the corporation required by The Illinois Not For Profit Corporation Act to be maintained in the State of Illinois may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office in the State of Illinois, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERS

Section 1. Initial Members. The corporation initially shall have two (2) members. The initial members shall be David Logan and Reva Logan.

Section 2. Successor Members. Jonathan Logan will succeed David Logan. There shall be no successor to Reva Logan. Upon the deaths or incapacity of both David Logan and Reva Logan, Daniel Logan and Richard Logan shall each be named additional members and Jonathan Logan shall continue as (or become) a member. Each of Daniel Logan, Richard Logan and Jonathan Logan shall designate, in the event of death or incapacity, his own successor member, or his own successor consecutive members, in a writing filed with the records of the corporation. Any acting successor to Daniel Logan, Richard Logan and Jonathan Logan may designate, in the event of death or incapacity, their own successor member, or consecutive successor members, in a writing filed with the records of the corporation. Each successor member must be a descendant of the marriage of David Logan and Reva Logan. Any designation may be revoked in whole or in part in writing filed with the corporate records by the member who made such designation. If no designation is made or if all persons designated are unable or unwilling to act, then the vacancy in the membership shall not be filled except as otherwise provided herein. As used herein, the "descendants of the marriage of David Logan and Reva Logan" shall include all biological or adopted children of each of Daniel Logan, Richard Logan and Jonathan Logan, and all biological or adopted descendants of each such child.

Section 3. Duties of Members. Initially, the members shall elect David Logan and Reva Logan as directors. The members shall also elect by majority vote no more than three (3) directors who are descendants of the marriage of David Logan and Reva Logan (David Logan and Reva Logan and each such individual are each hereinafter referred to as a "Logan Family Director" and collectively as the "Logan Family Directors") to the Board of Directors, for the term specified herein. In addition, the members shall elect by majority vote a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of five (5) additional directors (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Independent Directors") to the Board of Directors, for the term specified herein.

Section 4. Votes of Members. With respect to each matter to be determined by the members, each member shall have one (1) vote and the members shall act by a majority vote of the members.

ARTICLE IV

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number, Tenure and Qualifications. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Directors shall be no more than five (5) Logan Family Directors as long as either David Logan or Reva Logan is living and (except as provided in Article VIII hereof), there shall be no more than three (3) Logan Family Directors when neither David Logan nor Reva Logan is living, plus a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of five (5) Independent Directors as determined by the members. The initial Logan Family Directors shall be David Logan, Reva Logan, Daniel Logan, Richard Logan and Jonathan Logan. The initial Independent Directors shall be designated by the members. No less than two (2) Independent Directors are required to be acting at all times. Each director elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the directors or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Directors need not be residents of Illinois nor officers of the corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy among the Logan Family Directors, a majority of the members may elect a successor director who is a descendant (by blood or adoption) of the marriage of David Logan and Reva Logan, consistent with the requirements set forth in the preceding section. In the event of a vacancy among the Independent Directors, such vacancy shall be filled: (a) by David and Reva Logan during David Logan's lifetime; (b) by Jonathan Logan and Reva Logan during Reva Logan's lifetime but following the death of David Logan; or (c) by a majority of the members following the death or incapacity of both David and Reva Logan, provided, however, if a majority of the members fail to fill such vacancy within ninety (90) days after the vacancy was created, a majority of the remaining Independent Directors shall fill such vacancy. Any director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Section 3. Duties of Directors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors.

Section 4. Annual and Semi-Annual Meetings. Annual and Semi-annual meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held, without other notice than this bylaw, on the second Tuesday in February and the second Tuesday in August, at the place where the Board of Directors designates, either within or without the State of Illinois. The Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, either within or without the State of Illinois, for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than this by-law.

Section 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of a majority of the Board of Directors. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix any place, either within or without the State of Illinois, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Directors called by them.

Section 6. Notice. Notice of special meetings shall be given to each director, in person or by mail, at least five (5) days prior to the date designated therein for such meetings. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with first-class postage thereon prepaid. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 7. Quorum. A majority of the directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors; provided, that a quorum must include: (a) the presence of either David or Reva Logan during David Logan's lifetime; (b) the presence of at least two independent directors and either Jonathan Logan or Reva Logan during Reva Logan's lifetime but following the death of David Logan; or (c) at least two independent directors following the death or incapacity of both David and Reva Logan. If less than a majority of such number of directors are present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may participate in and act at any meeting through the use of a conference telephone or other communications equipment, provided that a majority of the Board of Directors consent to such form of meeting and that a written record of such action and meeting are made a permanent part of the corporation's records.

Section 8. Votes of Directors. With respect to each matter to be determined by the Board of Directors, each Director shall have one (1) vote and the Board of Directors shall act by a majority vote of the Directors.

Section 9. Resignations. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the president or to the secretary of the corporation. A resignation need not be accepted in order to be effective.

Section 10. Informal Action By Directors. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all the directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, or by all the members of such committee, as the case may be. Any such consent signed by all the directors shall have the same effect as an unanimous vote, and may be stated as such in any document filed with any third party, including but not limited to, the Secretary of State of Illinois, any bank or savings and loan association, Internal Revenue Service, Illinois State Department of Revenue, Cook County Recorder's Office and the Attorney General of Illinois.

Section 11. Compensation. The Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors then in office, shall have authority to establish reasonable compensation to any director for services to the corporation as a director, officer or otherwise. Further and also by resolution of the Board of Directors the directors may be paid their expenses, if any, for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or for any activities directly in connection with fulfilling their duties as directors of the corporation.

Section 12. Loans Prohibited. No loans shall be made by the corporation to any director.

Section 13. Presumption of Assent. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Section 14. Removal of Directors. Prior to the deaths or incapacity of both David and Reva Logan, a majority of the members may remove one or more of the directors of the corporation, with or without cause. Following the deaths of both David and Reva Logan, an Independent Director can be removed by the vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of Logan Family Directors and a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Independent Directors.

Section 15. Committees. A majority of the directors may create one or more special committees to undertake specific tasks and report to the Board of Directors. Each committee shall have two or more members appointed by the Board of Directors, who serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. However, a committee so appointed by the Board of Directors may not act in the place of or exercise any of the authority that is vested in the Board of Directors under the law.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 1. Number. The officers of the corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and may be a chairman of the board, a president, a secretary, a treasurer, and one or more vice-presidents, one or more assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. Further, the Board of Directors may hire an Executive Director to oversee the day-to-day operations of the corporation who is not to be considered an officer of the corporation.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as may be convenient. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

Section 3. Compensation. The Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors then in office, shall have authority to establish reasonable compensation of all officers for services to the corporation.

Section 4. Loans Prohibited. No loans shall be made by the corporation to any officer.

Section 5. Resignations. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the president or secretary. A resignation of an officer need not be accepted in order to be effective.

Section 6. Removal. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

Section 7. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 8. Duties of Officers. The duties and powers of the officers shall be as follows:

Chairman of the Board

The chairman of the Board, if there shall be one, shall be the chief executive officer responsible for the general care, supervision, control and direction of the business of the corporation. He may call meetings of the Board of Directors from time to time. He may sign with the secretary, or any other proper officer of the corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors to some other officer or agent of the corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed, and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of chairman of the board and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

President

The president shall be the chief operating officer of the corporation and shall be responsible for the administration and operation of the business and affairs of the corporation. He may sign with the secretary, or any other proper officer of the corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these bylaws to some other officer or agent of the corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed, and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of president and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Vice-Presidents

The vice-president, if there shall be one, or if there shall be more than one, the vice-presidents in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence, disability or refusal to act of the president, perform the duties of the president, and when so acting, shall have all the power of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president.

Secretary

The secretary shall: (a) keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; (b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these by-laws or as required by law; (c) be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the corporation (if any) and see that the seal of the corporation is affixed to all documents, if necessary, the execution of which on behalf of the corporation under its seal, if necessary, is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws; and (d) in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the president or by the Board of Directors.

Treasurer

If required by the Board of Directors, the treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. He shall: (a) have the charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation; (b) receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys not otherwise employed in the name of the corporation in such bank, savings and loan association, trust company or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article IX of these by-laws; and (c) in general perform all the duties incident to the office of treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the president or the Board of Directors.

Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers

The assistant treasurers shall respectively, if required by the Board of Directors, give bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties in such sums and with such sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. The assistant treasurers and assistant secretaries, in general, shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to them from time to time by the treasurer or the secretary, respectively, or by the president or the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, STAFF

After the deaths of David and Reva Logan, the Board of Directors is directed to hire an independent professional Executive Director (if one is not already in place at the time of the death of the last to die of David and Reva Logan) and a reasonable staff. The Executive Director shall report to the President and oversee the day-to-day operations of the corporation and prepare an annual budget and report on the status of the corporation's grants on a regular basis. The Board of Directors shall review its progress towards its charitable objectives annually and work with the Executive Director and the staff in developing appropriate procedures for grantmaking.

ARTICLE VII

INCAPACITY, INABILITY OR REFUSAL TO SERVE

In the event that a Logan Family Director shall be unwilling or unable to serve as a member or director of the corporation, such unwillingness or inability shall be treated as if such individual is deceased for purposes of the governance of the corporation. If a qualified physician chosen by the Independent Directors determines that a Logan Family Director lacks the mental capacity to serve as either a member or Director, such individual will be treated as if he/she is deceased for purposes of the governance of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

POLICY REGARDING FAMILY

The corporation encourages the participation of grandchildren (by blood or adoption) of David and Reva Logan at all levels of the corporation. If a grandchild shows a willingness and interest to become involved in the philanthropic mission of the corporation, he or she may be invited to be present as a non-voting guest at meetings of the Board of Directors. Spouses and partners of descendants of the marriage of David Logan and Reva Logan may also participate in the efforts of the corporation; however, no spouse or partner can become a member or a Logan Family Director or an Independent Director. Further, the Board of Directors will consider grants to local community foundations to be managed by family members under the supervision of the Board.

ARTICLE IX

CONTRACTS, LOANS, CHECKS AND DEPOSITS

Section 1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the corporation and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 3. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents, of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Deposits. All funds of the corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such bank, savings and loan association, trust company or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

Section 5. Gifts. The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the corporation any contribution, gift, bequest or devise for the general purposes or for any special purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE X

VOTING OF SECURITIES

The president shall have full authority, in the name and on behalf of the corporation, to attend, act and vote at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the corporation may hold securities, and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the holder thereof, the corporation might possess and exercise if personally present, and may exercise such power and authority through the execution of proxies or may delegate such power and authority to any other officer, agent or employee of this corporation.

ARTICLE XI

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation shall end on December 31 of each year.

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNIFICATION

(a) The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner in which he reasonably believed to be in and not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in a respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless or only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit is finally adjudicated shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

(c) Anything in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this Article to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent that any person referred to therein has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of action, suit or proceedings referred to therein or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the indemnification on the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b). Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of quorum (as defined in the by-laws of the corporation) consisting of directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding or (ii) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

(e) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

(f) The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any statute, by-law, agreement or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his successors in interest, including but not limited to his trustees, heirs, executors and administrators.

(g) The corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE XIII

SEAL

The Board of Directors may provide a corporate seal which shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed thereon the words, "Corporate Seal, Illinois."

ARTICLE XIV

WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of these by-laws or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or under the provisions of the Illinois Not For Profit Corporation Act, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XV

AMENDMENT

At any time during the lifetime of David Logan, these By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new By-Laws adopted by Reva and David Logan. If David Logan is deceased or is otherwise incapacitated and Reva Logan is living and is not otherwise incapacitated, then these By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new By-Laws adopted by Reva Logan and Jonathan Logan. If Reva Logan is deceased or is otherwise incapacitated and David Logan is living and is not otherwise incapacitated, then these By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new By-Laws adopted by David Logan. In the event both Reva and David Logan are both deceased and/or incapacitated, then these By-Laws may only be altered, amended or repealed and new By-Laws adopted upon the unanimous consent of the members; provided, however, in no event may any amendment abridge the rights of the Independent Directors; provided, further, however, in no event may the members amend the provisions of Article XVI unless such amendment is required to maintain the status of the corporation as an entity exempt from income taxation under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in such event any such amendment may only amend the provisions thereof to the extent necessary to maintain such tax exempt status. For purposes of this Article and Article XVI, an individual shall be deemed "incapacitated" when a qualified physician chosen by the Independent Directors determines that such individual lacks the mental capacity to serve as a member.

ARTICLE XVI

CONTINUITY, TERM

Section 1. Distribution Over Twenty Years. Except as hereinafter provided in this Article or as may otherwise be required by law, in no event may the corporation be terminated or dissolved within the period beginning on the first date on which both Reva and David Logan are deceased and/or determined to be incapacitated, and ending on the date that is the twentieth anniversary thereof. During such period, the Board of Directors shall authorize distributions to charitable organizations chosen by the Board of Directors in amounts such that the net assets of the corporation are gradually reduced to zero (0) over such twenty (20) year period. The Board of Directors shall authorize a final distribution of any assets of the corporation remaining at the end of such twenty (20) year period.

Section 2. Withdrawal of Son. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, upon and after the three (3) year anniversary of the first date on which both Reva Logan and David Logan are deceased and/or determined to be incapacitated, a son of David Logan (the "Withdrawing Son") may, by a written instrument delivered to the members of the Board of Directors (the "Withdrawal Notice"), direct the Board of Directors to distribute to any one or more organizations ("charities") which are qualified as exempt within the meaning of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and whose purposes are similar to the objectives of The Reva and David Logan Foundation, including, but not limited to, a public charity, a private foundation or a donor advised fund, an aggregate amount equal to the product of such son's Son's Fractional Share (as hereinafter defined) multiplied by the net fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of the date of receipt of the Withdrawal Notice. The identity of such one or more charities and the amount to be distributed to each such charity shall be determined by the Withdrawing Son in his sole and absolute discretion. With respect to any transfer to a donor advised fund designated by a Withdrawing Son, such Withdrawing Son shall be the advisor with respect to such fund. A "Son's Fractional Share" shall mean a fraction the numerator of which shall be 1 and the denominator of which shall be equal to 3 less the number of sons of mine who had previously delivered a Withdrawal Notice to the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Resignation upon Delivery of Withdrawal Notice. Upon the delivery of a Withdrawal Notice by a Withdrawing Son, such son shall thereupon be deemed to have resigned as a member, officer and director of the corporation, any successor members to such son shall be deemed to have resigned as members of the corporation, and any and all provisions hereof that may otherwise grant any power or right to such son and/or to such son's descendants shall no longer be deemed applicable to such son or to such son's descendants.

Section 4. Intent of Reva and David Logan. It is the request of Reva Logan and David Logan that each member of the corporation understand (1) that the corporation was formed as a family foundation, (2) that they attached great importance to their family working together as a family in doing good in a responsible way and (3) that the provisions permitting the withdrawal by a son have only been included to reflect the disappointing possibility that a son believes the family cannot or should not continue to work together.
