The National Cherry Festival provides grant and donation opportunities for local nonprofit, civic and church organizations and individuals interested in providing volunteer services to the Festival during the annual National Cherry Festival. The funding cycle begins in late winter/early spring when the Festival accepts applications from interested groups who provide information regarding its organization, their EIN, number of volunteers and hours their group is willing to contribute. Festival staff screen each group to determine whether they qualify for the program, then schedule their volunteer shifts for Festival week. On their scheduled volunteer day, the organization's members sign in/out at Volunteer Central so that the number of hours worked can be tabulated. Based on the number of hours worked and the type of volunteer activities performed, the organization will receive a grant/contribution payable to their organization. During calendar year 2012, 92 volunteer groups were utilized.
