Note for Schedule F, Part I, Line 3 (c)

Community Systems Foundation has no employees in the regions. In 2012, the program services in these regions were provided through technical assistance teams comprised of: monitoring and evaluation focal points from the United Nations, national statistical offices and Community Systems Foundation. Community Systems Foundation provided these program services through technical agreements between Community Systems Foundation and the United Nations. These technical support resources supported a joint UN programme for monitoring human development called the DevInfo Initiative. There are approximately 20 focal points associated with the DevInfo program services in each region.
