Dear agent,

We are responding to your notice of June 18, 2014 where you have assessed additional interest and penalties for the 12/31/2012 tax year end of the above listed private foundation.

On June 26, 2013 we received a notice stating that the 2012 return received for the above referenced foundation showed Part 7A lines 11 and 12 as blank. In reviewing the return filed, a copy of part 7A is enclosed dated 5/13/13, does show that Q 12 was inadvertently left blank however Q 11 was marked "No". We prepared a revised part 7A showing that Q 12 should have been marked "No" as well. A copy of the revision is enclosed dated 6/28/13 when it was prepared.

In order to obtain the signature of Michael Julien, the Director and Trustee of the foundation, we arranged a meeting with him and that was finally obtained on August 14, 2013. The forms were immediately mailed to the IRS as shown by the enclosed receipt from your office stating they were received on August 16, 2013.

We are asking that the late filing penalty be abated as there was no intention to file an incomplete return in any way. Due to a change in tax software coding, the question was inadvertently missed. This foundation has been in good standing with the IRS for many years and have always filed timely returns.

Should you have any questions regarding this information, please feel free to contact me at the number below.

Sincerely,

Ruth Washburn, E.A.
