The Young Foundation

The Young Foundation is a private, nonprofit family foundation established in 1994. The foundation incorporated with the broad purpose of benefiting Oakland County communities and surrounding areas through support of religious, educational, cultural and community endeavors. Our current focus is on programs helping disadvantaged youth and families.

The foundation is limited in size. It does not provide direct grants to students for scholarships or to organizations for endowment purposes. The foundation generally avoids multi-year commitments and requests for unrestricted operating support. We look for quality and innovativeness in the programs requesting funding.
