This form is quite confusing. We will continue to seek public support through publicity and to advertise the advantages of our organization in every form and forum available to us. Our resolve is to successfully state charitable purposes and goals and to gain support during our 5 year qualifying period. We are also actively seeking contributions and support from our personal appeals in our community contacts for like-minded interested parties to help us. It is our experience that it takes some time to get to be better known and gain the necessary support.
