Community Investment/Allocations

United Way of Racine County is committed to distributing funds back to the community. United Way of Racine County staff and investment committee volunteers work hard throughout the year to make sure that United Way of Racine County's investment strategies are focused in the areas of education, income and health-the building block of a good life. We fund programs that prepare children and youth to achieve their potential through education, prepare individuals and families to become financially stable and independent, and help individuals achieve maximum physical, emotion, mental health and safety outcomes. These efforts allow Racine County residents to empower themselves to achieve their full potential. We also

Community Impact

United Way's mission of "creating lasting community change" is accomplished by initiating and facilitating systems-wide projects around education, income and health, such as Advancing Family Assets, and Schools of Hope. Additionally, United Way manages the Racine Afterschool website, which provides details on opportunities for afterschool programs and on scholarships. United Way is also working to increase knowledge of the importance of early childhood learning with a public awareness campaign. The United Way Community Service Liaison serves on 11 different community organizations and provided workshops to 235 low-income individuals.

4c (Code.) (Expenses $ 463,830 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 463,830)
Advancing Family Assets

By 2020, Advancing Family Assets (AFA) expects to measurably increase the financial and family stability of at least 500 families in Racine County, achieving a variety of positive outcomes within the families, leading to increases in the number of reliable and productive workers, ultimately reducing poverty in Racine County. To help families achieve financial stability and family success, AFA uses an intensive life coaching approach in which families volunteer to be in the program, create success plans that outline their goals and learn to better manage their lives. In partnership with various community agencies and organizations, AFA connects families with existing community resources, which help them reach their goals. The
