Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Education Foundation of Hudson, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) which comprise the statements of revenue collected, expenses paid, and change in cash and investments as of December 31, 2012 and 2011.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the basis of cash receipts and disbursements, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the revenue collected, expenses paid, and change in cash and investments of the Education Foundation of Hudson, Inc. as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 of the financial statements which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principal Business Activity

Education Foundation of Hudson, Inc. (the "Foundation") is a not-for-profit organization that operates to support and improve the learning opportunities for students in the Hudson, Wisconsin, area by awarding grants and scholarships to students and various school programs. Grants and awards are determined annually by the Board of Trustees at their discretion in accordance with the Foundation's bylaws. The Foundation's main source of revenue and support is through contributions from the public.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements. Consequently, certain revenues and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Investments are valued at cost. Under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, investments would be valued at fair market value, and unrealized gains and losses would be recognized as part of earnings.

Investment Policy

All investments are managed by the Investment Centers of America. The portfolio consists of mutual funds and managed money. The different asset categories include cash, bonds, U.S. stocks, and international stocks. A formal review is done annually, and the portfolio is rebalanced at that time, if considered necessary. The Foundation also receives quarterly updates and can request a review at any time.

Fair Value Measurements

The Foundation accounts for investments at cost in the financial statements but presents fair market value information in Note 2 for analysis purposes.

Education Foundation of Hudson, Inc.

Income Taxes

The Foundation is a nonprofit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and is exempt from federal taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. The Foundation is also exempt from state income taxes on related income. The Foundation's Form 990 returns remain open to federal income tax examination through their statutory time periods.

Donated Materials and Services

The Foundation pays for services requiring specific expertise; however, a substantial number of volunteers have devoted significant amounts of their time in support of the Foundation. The Foundation also utilizes office space at no cost. No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for these donated services and facilities.

Board Members

Each trustee on the Board of Trustees is elected to a three-year term by the other trustees. At the end of the three-year term, the trustee can be reelected to another three-year term, or the Board can choose to nominate a new trustee.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through May 12, 2013, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
