RIC is an organization of diverse Racine churches and faith communities formed to promote social justice, fairness and quality of life in Racine.

Our mission is to address the root causes of social problems and lead to new ways of thinking and acting such as....

Create community by member organizations acting individually and acting with each other to generate power and influence to positively impact the Racine area.

Build a multi-ethnic, multi-racial interfaith coalition of congregations to celebrate diversity, to educate, to advocate for, and to empower people to address social concerns of the Racine community, east of the Interstate, particularly low and moderate-income people.

Promote and be guided by common values, diverse cultures and varied spiritual traditions of the member congregations under democratic principles.

Work for justice, equal access to resources, the relief of poverty, and the promotion of the general health and well-being of the Racine citizenry through dialogue, education and actions.

Stimulate new and different efforts to improve our community through dialogue with public and private entities and officials.

Support and strengthen member congregations.

Form 990-EZ: Line 28, Description
