2012

Organization's Primary exempt purpose: partner with indigenous Christian workers in the developing world by providing funding, training, or tools to enhance effectiveness of their work.

Number of Clients served: Partnerships or working relationships have been established with up to 18 individuals or leaders of missions or institutions.

Funding of programs or provision of tools benefit thousands served by the national workers. For example, children's homes served house up to 225. Schools being assisted serve over 6000 children. Pastors or workers serving under our partners number in the hundreds for whom we sometimes provide salary supplements, bicycles or other means of transportation, audio/visual tools, literature for distribution, personal reference libraries, training, etc. Scholarship recipients and students supported number around 50. Students served by library development number in the hundreds.

Haiti: Purchases and gifts in kind sent including school supplies, agricultural equipment, tools and equipment for vocational-technical training, clinic supplies, computer equipment and supplies and materials for the churches. Supplemental funding is provided for support of mission workers, clinic workers and schoolteachers. Some funding is used to send trainers to Haiti to participate in seminars, conferences and work projects.

Ghana: Ongoing development of the seminary library serving about 40 full time and about 100 part time students. Funds used for the shipping of books, purchase of new books, salary supplements, facility development, audio/visual and library equipment, special events, and to meet emergency needs (primarily medical) at the campus. Dollar amount may not include all costs of wire transfers, communication, or handling of gifts in kind.

Bethel Mission at KGF India

Funds are used to assist with expenses of three children's homes, care of widows, training programs, and special events.

Jehovah Shammah Children's Home at Narsapur, India

Funds to aid with repairs and maintenance of the facility, and to provide supplemental support for care of 40 children. Funds are also provided to assist with the outreach and training programs directed by the Home director and his associates.

During 2012 we issued eight informational newsletters and sent out a number of additional letters to the donor base.

Non-measurable achievements: Long term results of exposing American friends to the field partners through vision trips, speaking engagements, and individual conversations. Long term results of relationships established and of the networking and introductions that take place.

Long term results of funding education, care of widows and orphans, vocational training for self support, the impact of preaching and teaching on worldview and lifestyle for greater productivity, healthier living, participation in assisting others, etc.

New and used books and other learning materials are being distributed to 15 Bible Schools, Seminaries or other training programs.
