PART VI, LINE 11B AND LINE 19: The 990 and supporting schedules are provided (hard copy) to the Board prior to the regular April meeting for review. At the April meeting, these documents are reviewed by the Board. The conflict of interest policy is reviewed at a Board meeting annually. Monthly YTD financial statements are reviewed each month by the Board and annual statements are reviewed at the Annual Friends' meeting in October/November. The last three years' of the 990 and related schedules is available at the Refuge Bookstore upon request as are Board policies and information concerning Friends' programs.

Part V, 1c: There were no reportable payments to vendors nor were there any gambling or prize winners.

Part VI: The organization has approximately 200 members. The monthly meetings are open to members and the public. Minutes are prepared and document discussions and Board actions. The written whistle blower policy, along with other Board policies are reviewed at least annually.

Part XI; Reconciliation: The investment expenses, ($15,687.18) are included in line 2, and not reported separately on line 7.

Schedule B is included, although no contributions were received requiring this form

Schedule D, Part V: The endowment section includes a permanent endowment. The principle of the Ding Darling Endowment is restricted for investment in stock expected to return steady dividends. The dividends are available for general purposes. A temporary restricted amount is also included; see schedule D, part XIII for a complete explanation.

Schedule I: Student interns are selected based on their interest in natural resource management. Likewise, high school students interested in pursuing college level work in natural resources are selected on a competitive basis, in cooperation with area schools
