Light Africa Program Service #1: School Tuition for Ugandan Children

Education in Uganda is not free and is an expense that most families cannot afford. Light Africa provided funding for school tuition fees for 106 children. These children attend elementary, middle, high school and colleges located in Kampala, Uganda.

Light Africa Program Service #2: Raising funds to support the construction of Light Africa Acadamey

Light Africa Acadamey is a high school located in Kampala, Uganda. There are no other high schools in the area and many children have to travel long distances to attend high school, or simply do not go to school. Funds were raised this year to complete the first of three stories of the high school building. Currently there are approximately sixty-five high school students attending Light Africa Academy.

Light Africa Incorporated has applied to the IRS for 501 (c) (3) status but has not received approval as of this tax filing.
